DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by DeLorme et al. (US 5,948,040). DeLorme is considered to disclose the claimed system comprising:

an advertisement site for displaying the advertisements the map image displayed on said user terminal, including a advertisement server for displaying route setting and advertisements situated along the set route on the map image, a route database storing road data on a map required for setting server, advertisement data (column 14 lines 1-42), wherein said advertisement server sets a route based on the road data stored said route database, and read out advertisements situated along the set route from said a route in said advertisement database storing registered advertisement database to display them on the user terminal (column 14 lines 53-65). DeLorme is considered to also disclose the claimed user profile matching (column 16 lines 60-65) and user registration (column 31 lines 52-67).

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Reference U, cited with this action, is considered to be the most relevant non-patent literature in the field of art claimed by the applicant. Hose (WO 00/04730) is considered to be the most relevant foreign document related to the claimed invention.
